THE SILK COLLECTION

LUMEN

HAND-KNOTTED SILK BLENDS · BHADOHI

THE COLLECTION

Light Made Tactile.

The Lumen collection is woven to hold light — drawing it into the pile, scattering it through silk, releasing it slowly as the eye moves across the surface. Hand-knotted by master artisans in Bhadohi, each piece in this family unites lustrous fibres with the quiet precision of centuries-old craft, producing textiles that shift in character from morning to evening.

LUMEN

HAND-KNOTTED

Each rug in the Lumen collection is hand-knotted — knot by knot, row by row — yielding a depth of pile and a luminous sheen that only this ancient construction can achieve. Where silk meets wool, light pools and plays; every step across the surface becomes an encounter with living material.

CREAM / BOTANICAL MULTI

Selene

A cream field ignites with botanical abundance: unfurling blossoms in coral, sapphire and gold cascade over a pale ground threaded with pure sari silk. Luminous and celebratory, yet grounded in the quiet authority of hand-knotted craft.

MATERIALS New Zealand Wool & Sari Silk
ORIGIN Bhadohi, India
SIZES 6' x 9' · 8' x 10' · 9' x 12' · 10' x 14'

ANTIQUE GOLD / MULTI FLORAL

Calliope

A warm amber field carries an all-over bloom of silk-pile florals in amber, pink and jade — a Bohemian sensibility refined through meticulous hand-knotting. The sari silk threads catch candlelight like polished amber, making each bloom appear to hover above the wool ground.
